LOCAL NEWS.

William Vincel and Carmack Elswick, of Campton, were in town Saturday.

Jack Wood and Lee Patrick have gone to Harrison county on a protracted visit.

C. A. Turner, of Mt. Sterling, was in town Friday night, a guest of the Pieratt house.

Miss Loucinda Kash, of Frenchburg, is visiting relatives and friends at this place.

Aunt Julia Little, of this place, left Friday for Missouri. We wish her a safe journey.

From good information there is at least 10,000 partridges within a radius of five miles of Hazel Green.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt one day last week brought us a tray containing five well grown apples—the second crop.

The candidates for Congress, Hon. W. P. Tanbree and Hon. Wm. L. Harrel will speak at Campton next Friday.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt will hereafter preach at Old Gray on the third Sunday instead of the second, as heretofore.

Hon. D. S. Godsey left for Mt. Sterling on Sunday last to attend court at that place on Monday. He has a lot of fine cattle there.

The Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer and THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD one year for $2 is what we are offering just now. Subscribe at once.

Steve Brown, of our county, who has been to Louisville lately, reports that there are 300 prisoners in jail there charged with offenses against the revenue laws.

Hon. Tom Stuart, of Winchester, will give a fine silk banner to the county in this Congressional District which shows the largest per cent. of Democratic gain.

Since our last issue Geo. Rice has sold six dozen of the window lookers mentioned in last week's issue, which shows conclusively that advertising pays, and pays big.

The sick of our town, this week, are as follows: Emily and the baby at Mr. and Mrs. Lusk's; Lulu at Mr. and Mrs. Evans'; Mrs. Cockerham at Mr. and Mrs. Tyler's.

Mrs. Evaline McGuire, of Leewellen, Lee county, mother of Fletcher McGuire, of our town, and her daughter, Miss Ellen, are visiting relatives and friends in this place.

Joe C. Lykins, of Campton, left Monday for Louisville, to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge, which met in that city yesterday. He went as the representative of Cox Lodge No. 464, located at Campton.

Several of the boys of our town went hunting one night last week and caught thirteen fine, fat and fair opossums. "Possum and sweet potatoes, in consequence, is a dish of no rarity in this town.

A postal card from N. B. Hays says he is located at Wichita, Kansas, and well pleased with the outlook. He has ordered THE HERALD sent to him at that place and thinks the regular receipt of it will make all serene.

DURHAM, IOWA, March 2, 1882.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla has cured me of the inflammatory Rheumatism, which being troubled with the disease for eight years.
M. W. MOORE.

Hon. W. P. Tanbree and Hon. Wm. L. Harrel addressed the people at Mt. Sterling Monday, and at Winchester Tuesday. Tomorrow they speak at Frenchburg, and on Friday will address the citizens of this county at Campton.

Alex. Hatfield, who lives near Daysborough is reported very ill with fever, and Hollis Gibbs, who is our informant, says that fever and chills are raging on the head of Red River. There has never before been so much sickness in that neighborhood.

Be sure to read the advertisement of Day Bros., Frozen Creek, and if you want to save money give them a call. They are now receiving the finest lot of goods ever taken to Breathitt county, and propose to sell them for cash lower than goods were ever before sold in Breathitt county.

Isaac Ingram's funeral was preached last Sunday by Revs. D. G. Combs and J. T. Pieratt, after which dinner was served on the ground. In the afternoon religious services were conducted by both ministers, with one addition by baptism. A large congregation and good order.

At the Annual Meeting at Campton, the delegates in attendance employed Rev. J. T. Pieratt, of this place, to do evangelistic work in the mountains, provided the money can be raised to defray his expenses. Our "village blacksmith" will make a good evangelist, and will certainly do much towards improving the mountains of this people. He can hit 'em some sledge hammer blows for his Master's cause, and is sure to do so every time he gets a welding heat.

Our Stock Sale Last Wednesday.

The stock sale at this place on last Wednesday was a decided success, and the quantity and quality of stock offered and sold was a surprise to even our most sanguine supporters. It being a busy season with the farmers, they generally believed that few would attend and that there would be but little stock sold. In this they were agreeably disappointed, as the following list of stock sold and prices realized will demonstrate. The total sales will be found to amount to $306.90, which, considering everything is very encouraging. The establishing of the sales here has always been a success and people are now more than ever, convinced that Hazel Green is the place to sell stock.

A Birth Day Party.

Last Thursday was Mrs. G. B. Swango's birthday, and she gave a supper on that occasion to celebrate the event, to which she invited several of her friends. The table was laden with all the good things to be had in a large plenty, and the guests were made to feel at ease and at home by host and hostess. One course after another was served, and the guests united in the opinion that it was a most successful party. Notable among the table attendants were Misses Ellen McGuire of Beattyville, and Ava Higgenbotham, the latter a niece of Mrs. Swango's from Virginia. She was especially attractive in her manner and her attention to the guests at table. Mrs. Swango was forty years of age on that day, and every one there wished she might live to be a hundred and celebrate each birthday in the same way. Below we give the names of those present, together with their respective ages, as near as we could ascertain, and if anyone has been omitted it was on account of THE HERALD man's attention to the same. A Good Man, and Likely to Get There, Ell.

Editor HAZEL GREEN HERALD:—Dear Sir: As there is no one prominently before the people as a candidate for State Senator from this district, I would respectfully suggest to the readers of your paper a suitable man for the position. I refer to Nathan B. Day, of Breathitt county. No man in the mountains is more closely identified with the business interests of this section than Mr. Day. He is an extensive and successful farmer, and the firm of Day Bros., of which he is the senior member, probably runs more number than any other on the North Fork. I understand he took a very active part in securing the passage of a bill through the last Legislature making it a felony to steal logs in the Kentucky River. He has shown himself to be a friend to the free school system by the efforts he has made to build up a good school in his own district. He would make a faithful and conscientious Senator, and would not seek to prolong the session, as his time devoted to his business at home is worth more than five dollars per day. In conclusion, he has hosts of friends who could take pleasure in casting their votes for him.

Just what every lady wants. A Magazine that combines the essentials of all others, and moreover's Monthly certainly fills the bill. The November number of this popular progressive Magazine is at hand, and a fine number it is, containing a beautiful oil painting of "The Madonna Lullaby," besides other illustrations. Its literary departments are instructive as well as amusing, and its fashion departments is just what is wanted in these hard times, as each number contains an order entitling the purchaser to select a pattern of any design in that number and of any size, thus saving the purchaser of a single number about thirty cents, and a saving of over $5 to twenty subscribers. Our lady readers who wish to economize will appreciate this, for while they get the finest literary Magazine in the world at only $2 per year, they get all the patterns they wish to use (free), from the recognized fountain-head of fashions.

Miss Mary Linkous, whose illness was mentioned in the columns of last week, died at dusk last Saturday evening, at the residence of her brother Mr. F. Linkous, on Laurel. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wallace, of this place, the latter being his sister, were in attendance at her bedside when death claimed her for his own. She was perfectly resigned and held an abiding faith in Him who said, "Come unto me, ye who are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Loving hands ministered to her in her last moments, and sorrowing friends and relatives should find comfort in the thought that He doeth all things well for the best. She was buried on Sunday at the family burying ground on Mr. Linkous' place, where the remains of her father were deposited some three years' since.

Sheriff Dennis of Morgan county last Saturday started with two prisoners, one for the penitentiary, sentenced at the recent term of the Morgan Circuit Court, and the other for incarceration in the jail at Mt. Sterling.

He stopped at his home at Ezel, and while there, the prisoners succeeded in freeing themselves from the hand-cuffs and made a break for liberty. Sheriff Dennis fired at one and accidentally shot himself through the wrist. The jail prisoner made his escape, but the penitentiary bird was captured. Dennis' wound is very painful but not considered dangerous.

Lacy Creek comes to the front again with a curiosity corn. On last Wednesday John S. Harper, living on that creek, brought to this office a stalk of corn which is like an ordinary stalk to the seventh joint, where it branches into two and each one contains one well-developed ear. Uncle Jimm Harper, however, a short time since brought us the most perfect species of the twin family we have seen. It is a twin emblem, as perfect as a sculptor could carve it.

The Powell County Journal has ceased to exist, and the office has been moved to Osbourne City, Kansas, where Mr. Knowlton will publish the Osbourne Journal. If the people of Powell want a first-class home paper that gives more mountain news than any paper in Eastern Kentucky, send $1 a year, they should at once subscribe for THE HERALD.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt will preach at Sand Field next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and at Valentine Pieratt's Saturday night. On Sunday morning at the same place, he and Rev. D. G. Combs will preach the funeral of Emma Nickell. Sunday afternoon, at the same place, he will deliver a sermon.

We present a new front to our readers this week, and hope it may meet the approval of all. On the second and third pages will be found some entertaining, instructive and interesting reading. Read every line of the paper every week and you will find at the end of the year that you have received more than your money's worth.

It is claimed that a heavy shock on corn is a sure indication of a hard winter, and also that when hornets build their nests on the ground preparation may be made to keep up his fire. Farmers report that they never saw corn husks any thicker nor so many hornets' nests built upon the ground. Look out for extreme cold weather.

Squire Sebastian, of Breathitt, who was here last Saturday says the Court of Claims of that county on last Tuesday decided to build a temporary court house 2500 feet for present use, and that they propose sometime next year to build a modern brick one, to be finer than any court house in the mountains.

Judge Levi Kash and J. T. Oakley, who live near Hazel Green, are building a tannery, and propose to run a tannery, a shoe shop, and a saddle and harness manufactory. Their enterprise is deserving of encouragement, and our citizens should give them their assistance in making it a success.

Albert Pitts, of Lexington, who has for sometime been engaged in the walnut lumber business here, on last Saturday sold to Robt. N. and John D. Rose, Jr., of Lacy Creek, two log wagons and six yoke of oxen for $750, to be paid in walnut lumber delivered at Rothwell Station.

Bill Lusk lost his case in the U. S. Court at Cincinnati. He counted himself with the fact that he made a speech to a jury in that court, and thinks something of taking out license to practice there regularly.

CORRESPONDENCE

WOLFE COUNTY.

CAMPTON, Oct. 15.—Your correspondent had the pleasure of being at a reunion of his Grandfather Rose's family, at W. J. Rose's on the Trace Fork of Stillwater on the 10th inst. There were eleven children born to him, (David Rose, Sr.) of whom there are ten living. Eight of these died at W. J. Rose's, at the reunion. The eldest did the youngest, the oldest being seventy-three years old and the youngest fifty-one years old. This was a rare scene, and I never expect to witness like again.

Coward Cable, of this place, was taken to the Federal Court at Louisville for violation of the revenue laws, and I learn that he was acquitted. This is the fifteenth time he has been before the court on this charge, and he has never yet been convicted. He is too sly a Coon to be caught.

Geo. E. Whit, of Elliott county, was in this place on the 13th inst., representing Henry Kanerl, manufacturer of blank books, Louisville, Ky., and left on the 12th for Beattyville and Jackson. May success attend the efforts of George in all his undertakings.

C. H. Canis of this place will take advantage of the Kansas excursion, under the management of C. E. Knowlton, late of the New York County Journal, and visit his brother, Wm. Hanks, of Bates county, Mo.

Hiram Hogg, Deputy U. S. Collector for the Eighth District of Kentucky, was in this place on the 13th inst., and was accompanied by Harvey N. Horton for Big Jim Spencer's or Joe's stillhouse.

The carding machine at this place has stopped running for this season, but will resume operations early next spring. As far as we can learn, general satisfaction has been given.

Robert Byrd, the young man of this place who was thrown from a mule above Frenchburg and so badly injured, is now at home and able to be about.

W. G. W. Cruce was in town yesterday. He says that he has completed the assessment of three districts and is now working on the fourth one.

Rev. A. P. Jones, of the M. E. Church South, preached an excellent sermon on the night of the 16th inst. Subject—Christian Courage.

Miss Arzella Rose, of Stillwater, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. David Hogg and Mrs. W. F. Ekins, of this place.

Billy Pack and wife, of Montgomery county, are visiting his wife's relatives at this place.

John Tolson and Joe Williams have gone to Johnson county horse-wrapping.

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 16.—Misses Belle and Rosalie Threl, who have been very sick for six or eight weeks, are convalescing. The treatment of Dr. J. H. Stamper and Dr. Lockhart Leideck, of Harrison county.

The funeral of Uncle John Byrd will be preached at the residence of A. C. Byrd on the fourth Sunday in October by Rev. W. G. Robinson, of Nicholas county, Sam Chandler and Bro. John Wilson.

Chas. H. Gorman, son, James will return here on the 18th from Campton county, where they have been visiting friends and relatives for the past month.

Born—To the wife of John Tutt, a few days since, a fine boy. His name is Luther, and John is happy.

David Lawson bought two fine calves of Bud Lawson yesterday for $25, and two hogs for $8.

There is a fine crop of chestnuts. Apples are rotting, and there will not be enough for winter use.

Thus M. Tatt is moving to Campton, and will ride as deputy for Sheriff Carter.

Alex Edwards, of Daysborough, is repairing H. D. Spradling & Son's mill.

MAGOFFIN COUNTY.

GYTSY, Oct. 14.—Stephen Richardson of Middle Creek was shot by Duil Hoskins on Sunday the 3rd inst., with a double barreled shot gun, inflicting a very serious wound, but at this writing is improving.

Mr. Hensley, of Wolfe county, bought of Calvin Salyer one yoke of oxen at $70, and John Howard bought of George Rose one gray filly at $35.

Linden Allen of this place is now at Catlettsburg, on route home from Texas, where he has been for some time. He is reported sick.

Charles Joseph, of Granger, Williamson county, Texas, arrived in this vicinity on Thursday the 7th inst.
